NINTH STEP PRAYER
GOD, give me the strength and direction to do the right thing
no matter what the consequences
may be. Help me to consider others and not harm them in any way. Help me to consult with others before I take any actions
that would cause me to be sorry.
Help me to not repeat such behaviors. Show me the way of Patience, Tolerance, Kindliness,
and Love and help me live
the spiritual life.
AMEN (Page 78-80 BB)

Turning Point

LEST WE BECOME COMPLACENT

It is easy to let up on the spiritual program of action and rest on our laurels. We are headed for trouble if we do, for alcohol is a subtle foe.

— ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS, p. 85

When I am in pain it is easy to stay close to the friends I have found in the program. Relief from that pain is provided in the solutions contained in A.A.'s Twelve Steps. But when I am feeling good and things are going well, I can become complacent.

To put it simply, I become lazy and turn into the problem instead of the solution. I need to get into action, to take stock:

where am I and where am I going? A daily inventory will tell me what I must change to regain spiritual balance.

Admitting what I find within myself, to God and to another human being, keeps me honest and humble. AA Daily Reflections
