Don't forget your birthdays!

Step Three is often described as the moment when recovery begins to move from hope to action. After coming to believe that a power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity, we are invited to make a simple but powerful decision—to stop trying to run the whole show alone.

For many of us, that idea can feel unfamiliar at first. Alcohol had convinced us that we needed to control everything: our circumstances, our emotions, and sometimes even the people around us. Step Three gently suggests another way. Instead of carrying the weight of the world on our own shoulders, we begin to trust that we are not alone.

We don't have to understand everything about our Higher Power. We only need a little willingness to believe that help is available.

As we continue forward in the steps, Step Three reminds us of something very simple and very powerful: We are no longer doing this alone.

3rd Step Prayer
God, I offer myself to Thee-
to build with me and to do with me as Thou wilt.
Relieve me of the bondage
of self, that I may better do Thy will. Take away my difficulties, that victory over them may bear witness to those I would help of Thy power, Thy love, and Thy Way of life. May I do Thy will always!
