A Full And Thankful Heart

— As Bill Sees It Page 37

"One exercise that I practice is to try for a full inventory of my blessings and then for a right acceptance of the many gifts that are mine—both temporal and spiritual. Here I try to achieve a state of joyful gratitude. When such a brand of gratitude is repeatedly affirmed and pondered, it can finally displace the natural tendency to congratulate myself on whatever progress I may have been enabled to make in some areas of living.

I try hard to hold fast to the truth that a full and thankful heart cannot entertain great conceits. When brimming with gratitude, one's heartbeat must surely result in outgoing love, the finest emotion that we can ever know."

peace

Lord, make me a channel of thy peace
 That where there is hatred, I may bring love
 That where there is wrong,
 I may bring the spirit of forgiveness
 That where there is discord, I may bring harmony
 That where there is error, I may bring truth
 That where there is doubt, I may bring faith
 That where there is despair, I may bring hope
 That where there are shadows, I may bring light
 That where there is sadness, I may bring joy.

Lord, grant that I may seek rather to comfort than to be comforted
 To understand, than to be understood
 To love, than to be loved
 For it is by self-forgetting that one finds
 It is by forgiving that one is forgiven
 It is by dying that one awakens to eternal life
 Amen.
